RECITATION FOR

YOU MAY BE LONESOME

(But You'll Be Lonesome A-lone)

By
ART GILLHAM
and
BILLY SMYTHE

You never realized when you had me
What a wonderful love you possessed
You never realized when you kissed me
How true to you were the lips that you pressed
I never thought a woman (man) could treat a man (woman)
As wonderful as you treated me
But you were not true
And what's more you never could be
You taught me to love
You taught me to care
But I was just a toy to you
Do you think that was fair?
All my hopes, my joys, my life
Were centered in your success
And I did every thing in my power
To give you happiness
But when you left me for some-one-else
You turned my heart to stone
You may be lonesome, but you'll be lonesome a-lone.
